Zeon Asia

ASIA TECHNICAL SUPPORT LABORATORY

Asia Technical Support Laboratory

Zeon Asia ATSL (Asia Technical Support Laboratory) covers technical demand in Asian emerging market from Singapore.

1 Technical Support Profile

Zeon Asia ATSL (Asia Technical Support Laboratory) will not only respond to requests for product testing and propose optimal compositions for customers but also provide true, value-added solutions. Zeon Asia intends to increase its presence in the Asia by addressing local needs that are vastly different from those of developed markets where electrification is more prominent than combustion engines. It will provide technical support and guidance that serve potential demand while concurrently contributing to the enhancement and development of the region's rubber processing industry.
