Indictment of Former President of a Zeon Group Company

Zeon Corporation

The former president of Zeon Medical Inc., who was arrested on suspicion of bribing a physician at the National Cancer Center Hospital East on September 21, 2023, was indicted yesterday by the Tokyo District Public Prosecutors Office on the same charge. This situation is truly regrettable and we recognize the seriousness of this matter.

We deeply apologize once again to our customers, shareholders, and all other stakeholders for any inconvenience or concern this situation has caused, despite the internal training we have conducted to ensure thorough compliance. The Zeon Group will work to prevent any recurrence of the alleged misconduct and further strengthen its compliance procedures to prevent any future incidents and quickly regain the trust of its customers.

We regret that we cannot release any further information at this time, given the ongoing investigation and possible future legal proceedings.
