Zeon earns Bronze Medal in EcoVadis sustainability assessment for the second consecutive year

Zeon Corporation (Zeon; head office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; President and CEO: Tetsuya Toyoshima) has been awarded a Bronze Medal for the second consecutive year in the sustainability assessment conducted by EcoVadis SAS, an internationally recognized sustainability rating agency based in France.

EcoVadis SAS evaluates the sustainability performance of over 150,000 companies and organizations across 185 countries, based on four criteria: environment, labor and human rights, ethics, and sustainable procurement. The Zeon Group was recognized in this assessment for its efforts and awarded a Bronze Medal for the second consecutive year, which is given to the top 35% of evaluated companies and organizations.

In recent years, companies have been expected to ensure that their entire value chains address social issues. As part of this, sustainability performance has emerged as a key criterion in business transactions.

Zeon has been promoting sustainability management with the goal of achieving sustainable growth together with society, in line with our corporate philosophy of "Contributing to the preservation of the Earth and the prosperity of the human race." We will continue to tackle environmental and social challenges while striving to be a company that meets societal expectations.

Note: The EcoVadis business sustainability assessment is conducted based on international sustainability standards, including the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact, the conventions of the International Labour Organization (ILO), the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) standards, and ISO 26000. The assessment includes analysis of supporting documentation for performance and provides actionable roadmaps for continuous improvement.
